CLUB TEACHING MATERIALS AND ACTIVITIES

Club activities will engage:

1. Interactive teaching materials
2. Games and sports activities to challenge in areas of honesty, brotherhood, hard work
3. Debates, research, discussion, skits, dances, music, poetry, to elaborate and illustrate all areas and engage parent involvement.
4. For younger groups coloring, poetry and repetition with fun activities.
5. Parent clubite forum to display work and performances and engage parents and adults in the topic of the national pledge and its reiteration in the homes. This could be done once or twice per term or monthly for a more energized approach.
6. Project creativity to engage thinking out the box. To include parent involvement eg. Get mother's formula for popular meal, perhaps rice or chicken. Discuss other ways of doing it if some ingredient is not available. Get parent to try and encourage report on taste. Child must believe that failure is not an option and limitation is not the conclusion, there is always a way out and the solution is within. This applies to lack or restriction in any area of life.
7. Monthly outings to demonstrate and reinforce: service, hard work, diligence, brotherhood.

8. Integration with other social outreaches, efforts, clubs and foundations.
 9. Discussion point for 5 or 10 minutes in every club gathering on areas of justice or injustice witnessed or engaged, also of conflict and peace; (community, school, personal or news item) with group discussion on how these issues could be addressed to satisfy the pledge. Testimonies of challenges to lie where the truth was told or otherwise.
 10. Project implementation and monitoring: parents and teachers to fill report card on clubite to grade them in all the areas of relevance (diligence, service, brotherhood, honesty, generosity etc) that can be measured by attitude change over time.
 11. Reward to include scholarships for club members to include participation and pledge keeper standard.
 12. Fund raising from local community businesses to finance club activities. They get a gift of Covenant and Call book with a strong selling point of the benefits of reinforcing the pledge. Club piggy bank for all change of parents etc to be put in for club social outreach.
 13. Pledge keeper's annual events, parish and national at central location with government involvement and backing, televised or broadcasted on social media. (Awards to club leaders and club at various levels)
 14. DRAMAS; STORIES, SONGS, POEMS ETC will be developed by each club and the better ones compiled over time will lead to an expanding resource bank available to all clubs.
